PROFESSOR W. MAX MÜLLER, of the University of Pennsylvania, died suddenly July 12, aged 57 years. He had almost completed reading the proofs of the third volume of his Egyptological Researches for the Carnegie Institute. He also left complete notes for a revised edition in English of his Asien und Europa, and in such a condition that it is hoped that it can be published.

DIRECTOR WILLIAM H. WORRELL and PROFESSOR ALBERT T. CLAY, of the American School of Oriental Research in Jerusalem, arrived in London in July, and have since been in active conference with the scholars and patrons interested in the proposed British School of Archaeology in Palestine. The difficulties of travel to the Orient are very great, but the two scholars hope to reach Jerusalem in October. They report that the British School has been very generously underwritten. An initial expedition of the Oriental Institute of the University of Chicago (see for its programme The American Journal of Semitic Languages and Literatures, the current volume, pp. 196 ff.) will be undertaken this winter. The Director, PROFESSOR JAMES H. BREASTED, sailed for England in August and from there plans to go to Egypt for the winter to study the archaeological situation. In the spring he will be joined by PROFESSOR DANIEL D. LUCKENBILL, MR. LUDLOW S. BULL, and MR. WILLIAM F. EDGERTON, of the University of Chicago, and they will make a rapid archaeological survey of Syria, Assyria, and Mesopotamia.
